

TRUSTS ARE THE MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

"The Man Who Stole the Earth"
Most Thrilling Novel Since the Masterpieces of Jules Verne, in Next Sunday's American

BOSTON CENTURY
THE TWENTIETH CENTURY NEWSPAPER
Fair and Colder To-day

SPORTING Edition

VOL. 5—No. 3. 10 PAGES. BOSTON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1908. PRICE ONE CENT.

THE DICTATOR!

Cartoonist's impression of J. F. Morgan, who, Senator La Follette declares, with the Standard Oil Company, controls the United States, financially and industrially.

Latest Bulletins Give Encouragement GULD HOLDS STRENGTH

The Improvement in Condition Noted Yesterday is Maintained To-day.

For the second time since the serious illness of Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., Mr. Guild held the sick bed of his husband to take a short drive today.

This regarded as a most significant encouraging sign of the governor's condition, for while he was in the shadow of death the faithful wife would not so much as leave his bedside to take necessary rest.

At noon the following bulletin was posted on the front door of Governor Guild's home at No. 1234 Marlborough street:

"The governor has held his own in the last twenty-four hours, and there is no marked change in his condition."

"DR. WINSLOW."

Dr. Frederick B. Winslow, P. C. Shattuck and Elbert F. Joslin held a long consultation at the bedside of the sick governor early today, and they returned to the house at 2 o'clock and left some half an hour later.

Dr. Winslow, at 9:50, through Frank L. Dana, private secretary of Governor Guild, held the sick bed of his husband to take a short drive today.

This regarded as a most significant encouraging sign of the governor's condition, for while he was in the shadow of death the faithful wife would not so much as leave his bedside to take necessary rest.

At noon the following bulletin was posted on the front door of Governor Guild's home at No. 1234 Marlborough street:

"The governor has held his own in the last twenty-four hours, and there is no marked change in his condition."

"DR. WINSLOW."

Dr. Frederick B. Winslow, P. C. Shattuck and Elbert F. Joslin held a long consultation at the bedside of the sick governor early today, and they returned to the house at 2 o'clock and left some half an hour later.

President in Special Message to Congress Urges Modification of Sherman Anti-Trust Law—Wall Street Pleased With Recommendations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—In his anxiously awaited message to Congress to-day, President Roosevelt completely surrenders to Wall Street. This unconditional surrender to the interests of the money power is so subject that the President's friends and supporters are dazed. Incidentally, Wall Street is immensely pleased, stocks are going higher, and if Mr. Roosevelt wants a third term Wall Street is now ready to support him, instead of condemning him, as it did a week ago.

Would Revise Sherman Act.

The message is a strong plea for the passage of the Hepburn bill, which aims to modify the Sherman anti-trust law so that contracts and agreements between corporations, which are now illegal under the anti-trust law, will become legal and recognized by the law. After cloaking the message with a few relatively unimportant matters such as child labor in the District of Columbia and the adoption by the government of a public employers' liability law, the message recommends that temporary injunctions against labor unions striking should be prevented and that an injunction in such a case should not issue until a week after the application was made.

Then diving into the anti-trust matters, the message urges the revising of the Sherman act and makes the significant statement that "the modern industrial world demands that the combinations of corporations are absolutely necessary, necessary to business men and necessary to labor men."

The President suggests to Congress the passage of a law the Hepburn bill, which will legalize contracts and agreements which are now held to be in restraint of trade and illegal under the Sherman act. The message suggests that this could be done by the combination of corporations which desire to make such a contract in restraint of trade, submitting the proposed contract to the commissioner of corporations, acting under the Secretary of Commerce.

FINANCIERS LIKE HEPBURN'S BILL

By Boston American Leased Wire, New York, March 25.—Looking them over at Wall Street expressed themselves today in favor of the Hepburn bill.

Julius F. H. Gary, chairman of the Board of Directors of the United States Steel Corporation, said:

"As I understand the bill it will, if enacted, be of great immediate benefit to the business interests of the country, and therefore should receive the hearty approval of every business man."

Henry Clegg, banker, said: "If the Hepburn bill, as it reads, or as it may be amended, will result in a measure that will insure a sound and stable currency and employ, it will be a matter of

What President Demands of Congress in Message

THE anti-trust law so that combinations of corporations can enter into contracts and agreements on the approval of such contracts and agreements by the Secretary of Commerce, appointed by the President.

Give trusts limited immunity for past acts.

Recognize the right of employers to combine and contract with one another and with their employees.

Preserve illegality of blackmail and boycott.

Appoint a committee to gather detailed information for the use of the next Congress in the revision of the tariff.

Pass the postal savings bank bill.

Prohibit child labor in the District of Columbia.

Abolish wood pulp tariff rate.

Pass employers' liability law and a bill protecting the employees of the government and states.

Prohibit the issuance of temporary injunctions against labor unions and strikes immediately on the application for such injunction.

Appoint or authorize a waterways commission to devise a great inland canal and waterway system for the use of commerce.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY IN "BLACK HAND" TRIAL

TWO PRISONERS ACCUSED OF ATTEMPTING TO EXTORT MONEY FROM PISCOPO.

With the courtroom jammed with interested Italian spectators, the trial of two men charged with attempting to extort money from Pisco, Peru, began today.

The two men, who are charged with attempting to extort money from Pisco, Peru, began today.

The two men, who are charged with attempting to extort money from Pisco, Peru, began today.

NAMES LOOMIS FOR TOKIO EXPOSITION

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—Asst. Secretary of State Francis B. Loomis, who has been out of the public eye since his conference with Herbert Hoover, Minister to Venezuela, will be appointed to the Tokyo exposition of 1912 at Loomis's post, where the Bureau of Commerce will have a strong voice in the exposition.

RAISE NEW POINT IN AMAZING SHAW TANGLE

LAWYER DECLARES TRUSTER IN $2,000,000 MIX-UP, BEING INSANE, CANNOT RESIGN.

New legal difficulties were encountered today in the attempt of John Shaw, Jr., to straighten the amazing financial tangle of his affairs when not for Catherine B. Shaw, his wife, his executor, and his attorney, the court in the Supreme Court that Shaw was not mentally capable of resigning his trusteeship of his estate.

The man who has controlled the two millions of dollars entrusted to his care today a patient at the Melrose House Asylum at Waverley.

Attorney Roger P. Sturges, appearing to-day before Judge Shaw, argued that Mr. Shaw could not legally resign his trusteeship of his estate, and that the court should declare that Shaw was not mentally capable of resigning his trusteeship of his estate.

The man who has controlled the two millions of dollars entrusted to his care today a patient at the Melrose House Asylum at Waverley.

Signed Shaw Papers.

It is asserted that Shaw conferred with the attorney, Mr. Tyndale, and signed a large number of legal documents after his long illness, and that he was in a lucid condition when he signed the documents.

Mr. Tyndale, who is the attorney for the estate, is reported to have signed the documents.

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE
Obtained at Abbott's drug, Main St. and South. Sold by all druggists.

will keep the bowels open in a natural, healthy condition and thus do away with the more common causes of constipation, such as indigestion, liver, kidney, salt, chronic, blood poisons, facial eruptions, etc.

Dr. Newman's Bone Red Chloride is not a cathartic medicine. It is a natural, healthy, and safe remedy for all the above troubles. Don't get any of the cheap imitations. Buy only the genuine. It is sold by druggists and health food stores. Price, $1.00 a box. Write for a free sample and full information mailed free.

[illegible]

If You Need a Medicine Y
Swamp-Root is always kept up to its high mark in the several countries where it is sold.

SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE—To get your sample bottle FREE, send your name and address to the publisher of this paper. You may have a sample bottle and a booklet absolutely free by mail. The book contains the story of the Swamp-Root cure received from man and beast. It is a valuable treatise on the value of Swamp-Root in all cases of kidney trouble. Write for a sample bottle. Address Dr. J. C. Smith, P.O. Box 108, Newburgh, N. Y.

Should Have the Best.
standard of purity and excellence,
ity with every bottle.
the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root of valuable information, both sent ab-many of the thousands of letters re-Swamp-Root to be just the remedy they sell known that you are advised to lmer Co., Binghamton, N. Y., bein the Boston Daily American.

him would necessitate some action by the American woman. were conflicting. sure to say, you read this generous offer in the London Daily

KING KAZOOKS

Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal-Examiner

40 AND 52 SUMMER ST., BOSTON. MARCH 25, 1908

We DO NOT Advise Anybody to Buy Them
Copyright, 1905, by American-Journal-Examiner

Payments at the rate of $25 to Mr. Norodny will not shake the Czar off his throne, nor take the metal bullets off the ends of the knout lashes, nor do anything else except possibly increase the present material comfort of some vague somebody.

BY JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES

The Washington Post sees things clearly and is brave enough to tell the truth.

BRING RELIEVED OF YE WEIGHT OF YE PRINCE AND EATETH HEARTILY OUT OF YE TUB OR PAIL WHICH STANDETH ANEAR

THEY DO IT ON $13 PER

Copyright, 1908, by American-Journal Company

NOT ALWAYS MEET EXPECTATIONS

THEY FIND COMMISSIONS DO NOT ALWAYS MEET EXPECTATIONS

By William F. Kirk

TEECHER told us yesterday to write a essay about Flowers &

Then Ma kissed Pa & Pa winked.

Without Love Life Would Be a Nightmare of Worry and Trouble, and We Crawling Insects

Br. Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Copyright, 1906, by American Journal-Examiner

REGARDING the Chinese virtues, I confess to a feeling of great lonesomeness when I regard the list and do not find Love and Hope there. To me, there would be no world—no life—without dominating Love as chief of all the virtues.

Without it, the earth would be a black ball, rolling through space—life a nightmare of worry and able, and people mere insects, crawling on their way

a little ones devoured by the big ones.

Next to Love, and its own lawful offspring, comes pathy.

You must love before you can sympathize. You can without loving, but Sympathy is a higher and more

If we all sympathized with one another, there would be cold criticism, less selfishness, less pushing and

There would be more

Justice, Politeness.

Knowledge,
And Uprightness,

Sympathy leads us to cultivate all these other qualities. You cannot really sympathize with any fellow being and treat him

The fully sympathetic soul acquires the knowledge necessary to the remaining virtues. Love much and largely. Do not pride on "loving very few." Cultivate love for humanity at large, and the lovable qualities in all those whom you meet. Get in sympathy with fellow men. Try to understand their point of view. And—

OVE much. Earth has enough of bitter in it;
 Cast yours into its cup when'er you can.

Cast sweets into its cup whenever you can,
No heart so hard but love at last may win it,
Love is the grand primeval cause of man.

Love is the grand primeval cause of man.
All hate is foreign to the first great plan.

LOVE much. Your heart will be led out to slaughter
On altars built of envy and deceit.

Love on, love on! 'tis bread upon the water;
It shall be cast in loaves yot at your feet,

Unleavened manna, most divinely sweet.

LOVE much. Your faith will be dethroned and shaken;
Your trust betrayed by many a fair, false lure.

Remount your faith, and let new trusts awaken.
Though clouds obscure them, yet the stars are pure.

Love is a vital force and must endure.

LOVE much. Men's souls contract with cold suspicion;
Shine on them with warm love, and they expand.

'Tis love, not creeds, that from a low condition
Leads mankind up to heights supreme and grand.
Oh, that the world could see and understand!

Oh, that the world could see and understand:
 — OUR much. There is no waste in freely giving:

More blessed is it, even, than to receive.
He who loves much, alone finds life worth living;

Love on, through doubt and darkness; and believe
There is no thing which Love may not achieve.

There is nothing, however, that